

āharati

he brings (verb)

amanusso

non-human being
(i.e. a god, etc.)
(noun M)

bandhati

he binds (verb)

bhāsatī

he says, he speaks (verb)

bhavati

he is, there exists
(verb)

brāhmaṇo

priest, brahman
(member of the
hereditary priesthood)
(noun M)

cavati

he falls (from a form
or existence), he dies
(verb)

devo

god (usual meaning),
king (as term of
respectful address)
(noun M)

gāmo

village (noun M)

harati

he takes (verb)

hoti

he is, there is (verb)

jīvati

he lives (is alive,
makes a living)
(verb)

kāyo

body, substance
(noun M)

khattiyo

warrior, noble (member
of the military-
aristocratic class) (noun
M)

loko

world, people,
universe (noun M)

maggo

road, way (noun M)

mahāmatto

minister (noun M)

manusso

human being, person
(noun M)

nisīdati

he sits (down) (verb)

pakkamati

he goes away (verb)

passati

he sees (verb)

pucchati

he asks (verb)

puriso

man, person (noun
M)

putto

son (noun M)

samaṇo

ascetic, wanderer,
philosopher (noun
M)

samayo

a time, occasion (any time, time of an event) (noun M)

tathāgato

thus-gone (from worldliness to a state of calm: epithet of the Buddha-usually-or of others like him) (noun M)

upāsako

lay disciple, the lay disciple, a lay disciple (noun M)

upasaṃkamati

he goes to, he approaches (verb)

vadati

he says (verb)